

Retail Guide: Alejandro Ingelmo's NY Picks

By NATASHA BODILY

FROM:

Footwear News Issue The Retail Guide

Like

Tweet

0

COMMENTS

A- A A+

PRINT

E-MAIL

Two-time CFDA Swarovski Award nominee Alejandro Ingelmo might have been raised in Miami, but the ancestrally Cuban artist has been setting New York style trends for years. Here, the designer shares his favorite Big Apple destinations and attractions.

1. Best Broadway show:

“The Book of Mormon.” “It is hilarious. Plus, Nikki James, who won the Tony, was great.”

2. Favorite escape from the city in the city:

“The park on the West Side Highway. I like to people-watch there.”

3. Best cupcake:

Billy’s. “I like the banana cake.”

4. Best cultural spot:

Moma PS1. “I am a big fan of contemporary art, and I like that this museum has so many different exhibits and various mediums.”

5. Best dive bar:

Automatic Slims. “It always ends up being a fun night when I go there.”

Alejandro Ingelmo

Photo By Pavel Antonov